

Figure 2. National Park Service Interpretation and Education Program Logic Model

Premise: If the NPS offers high quality interpretive, curriculum-based, and informational programs to a diverse public, the public will have better quality of life and will be better equipped to help preserve and protect the National Park System for future generations.

